

FAUQUIER COUNTY DEPUTY GRADUATES TOP IN HIS CLASS

On June 17, 2005 Deputy Rob Moline graduated from the Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy with the Top Overall Achievement Award. Deputy Moline excelled above all 18 graduates from 7 jurisdictions while attending the 3 month Jail Officer Basic Training.

The ceremony was hosted by Edward J. Evers, Director Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy, with special guest speaker Colonel Charles H. Land, Superintendent, Prince William-Manassas Regional Adult Detention Center. Colonel Land spoke to the deputies about respecting the people they are dealing with and the importance of ethical behavior. Each deputy was reminded that a law enforcement career will give back to you what you put into it and this will be your greatest reward.

Deputy Moline began his career with the Fauquier County Sheriff's Office in 1995 as a dispatcher for the Communication Center. In August 2005 Deputy Moline moved to the Adult Detention Center to complete his on-the-job training until attending the academy.

Sheriff Charlie Ray Fox, Jr. is proud to have Deputy Moline as part of his Adult Detention Center staff and equally as proud of his academy accomplishments. Congratulations!
